PUBLIC SCHOLARSHIP RESEARCH PROJECTS

World Bank
Ethiopia

2019

Consultant: Ethiopian Social Accountability Program, Phrase 3: The World Bank and the Government of Ethiopia seek to better understand how the Ethiopian Social Accountability Program (ESAP) improves service delivery, and induces behavioral and attitudinal changes among Ethiopian citizens and public officials. The ESAP is now entering its third phrase (ESAP 3), which gives us a unique opportunity to evaluate the impact of ESAP 3 in newly incorporated kebeles and woredas as well as to assess the ongoing impact of ESAP 2 in places that used ESAP 2 since 2012. US $350,000

Kenya 2019

Co-Principal Investigator: "Impact Evaluation of Participatory Budgeting in Kenya." The research project is an evaluation of participatory budgeting through a survey experiment incorporating thousands of Kenyan citizens in three Kenyan counties. The survey addresses fundamental questions of local governance, perceptions of legitimacy, and perceptions of voice and influence. US $350,000.

Making All Voices Count 2017

Organized a workshop on Participatory Budgeting that included NGO activists from 7 countries, including Indonesia, the Philippines, South Africa, Mozambique, Zambia, Uganda, Kenya and academic faculty from Brazil, England and the United States. Held in Nairobi, Kenya. US$110,000.

William and Flora Hewlett Foundation 2017

Provided a state of the art review of the current global status of Participatory Budgeting. US$ 65,000.
