a. A criminal charge or conviction is not necessarily a bar to continued involvement with the University. Upon learning of the criminal proceeding, Human Resources, in consultation with the appropriate administrator(s), conveys the University’s determination as to whether the individual may continue employment/affiliation/association with the University or may be placed on administrative leave, or other actions as applicable, to allow the University an opportunity to determine any appropriate action in accordance with University policies.

b. The University may take action including discipline up to and including dismissal from employment pursuant to Idaho State Board of Education policy; Idaho Code § 67-5309; IDAPA 15.04.01.190.01; University Policies 7310 (Non-Classified Employees Due Process and Appeals), 7450 (Classified Employees Due Process and Appeal Procedures), and/or other relevant University policies and Standards of Conduct.

c. This determination is informed by the following factors:

- Whether the individual complied with the mandatory self-disclosure requirement;
- The gravity and nature of the charges in relationship to the individual’s job responsibilities; and
• The individual’s prior criminal history, if any.

d. Human Resources will notify the individual of the University’s determination in writing.

7. Recordkeeping

All information received in connection with a self-disclosure of criminal charges or convictions must be treated with discretion and only disclosed when necessary. The information will be maintained confidentially in Human Resources.
