Boise State University, Concordia University School of Law, and University of Idaho College of Law have launched two distinct, joint law degree programs that affirm a commitment to creating partnerships to expedite the training of legal professionals.

Students wishing to participate in the Boise State University 3+3 BA/BS + JD Degree Program (3+3 Program) understand the conditions outlined below. The university commits to provide an Academic Advisor who will assist with creation of an academic plan moving the student toward completion. Students agree to the following in order to be eligible for admission to their chosen, participating law program. See the University of Idaho and Concordia University program requirements for specifics. An interested student must:

1. Declare an undergraduate major and construct a 3+3 Plan of Study. Students seeking double majors or dual degrees may experience difficulty constructing a 3+3 Plan of Study.

2. Stay on track by remaining in good standing at Boise State (academic, disciplinary, and financial). Make satisfactory academic progress, including passing all courses with the required grades. Courses may be retaken as necessary, but it is understood that the need to retake/repeat a course may impact program progress.

3. Meet all requirements of Boise State University and the major, option, emphasis, etc., including those for admission to and continuance in the major/option/emphasis. Participation in the 3+3 Program does not guarantee admission to the major, emphasis, or option.

4. Accept responsibility for monitoring progress by accessing web-based degree audit and grade records, and by acting on advice given by the advisor so the student may stay on track toward program satisfaction.

5. Have earned a minimum of 90 undergraduate semester hours by the end of the constructed 3+3 Plan and before beginning law classes.

6. Apply for the law program by the appropriate deadline and meet all other law program requirements.

7. Students may withdraw from the 3+3 Program at any time without penalty, upon written notice to the advisor and the 3+3 Coordinator, through letter or e-mail.

8. As part of the 3+3 Program, Boise State University will provide an academic advisor at your initial point of interest and before registration for each subsequent semester to review course selection from the recommended 3+3 plan provided by the academic department. Changes to the plan must be documented in a 3+3 Plan of Study update and be immediately delivered to the 3+3 Coordinator.

9. Completion of this form does not constitute acceptance into the program. 3+3 Degree Plan review and a meeting with your academic advisor and the 3+3 Program Coordinator are required prior to formal acceptance. You will be notified via your student email account of your status.
