

Our mission is to identify, investigate, and pursue claims of actual innocence made by inmates in Idaho and eastern Oregon. The Project is committed to freeing innocent men and women through use of forensic DNA analysis and newly obtained evidence. Working with key stakeholders to advance criminal justice reforms, the Project continually seeks to educate policymakers, law enforcement officials, and the greater public about the reality of wrongful convictions.

The Idaho Innocence Project (IIP) is currently seeking several dedicated volunteers to assist our organization with investigation, litigation, policy advocacy, fundraising, web development, and case management. Selected volunteers will have the opportunity to work closely with IIP staff and investigators in order to receive a one-of-a-kind view into the criminal justice system and policymaking process in Idaho.

Although we may be unable to compensate you financially, we are happy to give volunteers valuable experience in helping us run all aspects of our office, including litigation, investigation, corresponding with prisoners, evaluating cases, assisting with policy analysis, and fundraising. For a unique opportunity, please fill out and send the following form with a current resume and/or CV to idahoinnocenceproject@boisestate.edu We will contact you to confirm receipt of your application and also if you have been selected for an interview.
