

Apartment Addendum to
On-Campus Housing (Apartments) Agreement - Academic Year 2020-2021

This Apartment Addendum is an addendum to that certain On-Campus Housing (Apartments) Agreement (the “Agreement”) between the undersigned Resident (“Resident”) and Boise State University on behalf of the office of Housing and Residence Life (the “University”).

This Addendum, which contains certain additional terms pertaining to Resident’s occupancy of a University Apartment, is hereby incorporated into and part of the Resident’s Agreement, and Resident agrees to be bound by the terms of the Agreement and this Addendum.

1. The following list includes all Occupants who will reside in the Unit. Occupants are defined as domestic partner, child, sibling, or parent who live with enrolled Boise State students in an Apartment. All Students occupying any University Apartment must be Residents, and must complete a Housing Application, Agreement, and Apartment Addendum. Resident assumes all responsibility for Occupants residing in Resident’s assigned Unit, including ensuring that Occupants comply with the following requirement to submit the Criminal History Disclosure Form. Occupants over the age of 14 years must complete a Criminal History Disclosure Form provided by the University if their response to any of the criminal history disclosure questions on the Application is “yes”. Neither Resident nor Occupant shall knowingly permit access to On Campus Housing, including the Unit, to any convicted and/or registered sexual offender. The University reserves the right to reject any Occupant within a reasonable time following receipt of the Application for any reason, including but not limited to the result of the On Campus Housing Criminal Background Investigation Process. All Occupants must be provided a copy of the License Agreement. If an Occupant is charged or convicted, pled guilty or no contest to any felony, or a misdemeanor involving theft, burglary, pornography, physical assault, indecent exposure, or similar, or any crime of a sexual nature or involving lewd or lascivious conduct, or a crime against a minor, during the License Term, Resident must notify Housing and Residence Life within twenty-four (24) hours of such charge. Upon the occurrence of such an event, University reserves the right to require Occupant to vacate the Unit. Failure of Occupant to vacate the Unit could result in the termination of the Agreement. No other Occupants are permitted to reside in the Unit without prior written approval by University. All non-dependent Occupants must acknowledge receipt of the Agreement, this Addendum, and agreement to its terms by signing below.
2. Maximum Occupancy. Maximum occupancy for University Apartments is limited. The maximum number of adult Occupants is as follows:

Apartment Type	Maximum Adult Occupants
One-bedroom	Two
Two-bedroom	Three
Three-bedroom	Four
