

Thank you for submitting your application to Boise State University! This is a copy of the information you submitted in your online application. You do not need to submit this copy to Boise State University. We will send you an e-mail within five business days to confirm the receipt of your application.

In addition to the application you submitted, the following items are required to complete your application:

- Official transcripts or mark sheets for all post-secondary institutions (colleges, universities, training schools) you have attended. All documents must be issued in English, or accompanied by an official, literal English translation. If you are sending us an official English translation, you must also include the official transcript in its original language. All transcripts must be sent directly by the institution, or in the sealed, official envelope of the institution, with appropriate institutional stamps on the document and across the seal of the envelope.
- GRE or GMAT scores (if required by the department).
- All other application materials required by the department of the program to which you are applying.
- Payment of the application fee or an approved fee waiver.

Please review the Graduate College website at <https://graduatecollege.boisestate.edu> for additional details.
