

Center for the Study of Aging History and Major Accomplishments

Year	Major Accomplishments
2005	Three-year award from Congress to establish the Center for the Study of Aging; funding through the Agency on Aging (only 2 yrs of funding received) Year 1 funding: $245,000 Annette Totten, PhD hired as full-time director
2006	Center staffed by Director, Research Associate, Administrative Support, and a Graduate Research Assistant (GRA) Year 2 funding: $391,642 Idaho Statewide End of Life Survey and Report Establishment of CSA Advisory Board
2007	Implementation of Interdisciplinary Graduate Certificate in Gerontology Idaho Summit on Elder Abuse and Exploitation Osher Institute Assessment
2008	Idaho Commission on Aging (ICOA) Statewide Needs Assessment Informal Caregivers and Health Literacy Survey
2009	Holly Beard, PhD hired as part-time director Health & Welfare Living Well in Idaho (formerly known as Project Life) Evaluation, 2007 - present Finding the Gaps: A State Inventory of Long-Term Care Services and Needs; conducted for the National Governors Association
2010	Sarah Toevs, PhD appointed as director Elizabeth (Lee) Hannah engaged as research faculty ICOA Aging and Disability Resource Center Quality Assurance Project National Alzheimer's Association Policy Advocacy Project CSA Strategic Planning and Community-based Needs Assessment Formation of Justice Alliance for Vulnerable Adults, CPEA funding; 2010 - present Partnered with Idaho Area Health Education Center (AHEC) to promote Living Well in Idaho
2011	Denice Goodrich Liley, PhD, appointed as associate director Idaho Summit on Elder Abuse and Exploitation and Scam Jam Establishment of the Idaho Alzheimer's Planning Group Health & Welfare Fit and Fall Proof Evaluation – 2010 - present Impact Analysis of Idaho's Money Follows Person Medicaid Program Intergenerational Learning Projects with students from College of Business and Economics and OSHER Institute
2012	Idaho State Center for Independent Living Employment Services Analysis Formation of Idaho Lifespan Respite Coalition with support from ARCH ICOA Statewide Needs Assessment COMPASS Needs Assessment of Homebound Individuals Passage of Senate Concurrent Resolution 112 in Support of the Development of an Idaho Plan for Alzheimer's Disease and Related Dementias Coordination with Nampa Family Justice Center and Boise FACES Family Justice Center on Elder Abuse Prevention Training Submission of ARCH Lifespan Respite Infrastructure Grant with ICOA Submission of Wraparound Legal Services Grant with Idaho Legal Aid Justice Alliance for Vulnerable Adults (JAVA) Summit Mike Berlin and Mary Holden join staff of Center